MAR THOMA STUDENTS MAKE A MARK AT WIZKIDS 2020-21

WIZKIDS, South Asia's largest inter-school cultural, art and literary competitions, inception in 1997 is a unique platform for school students. It has been instrumental in honing their talent and in their growth. This year, 50,000 students from about 250 schools across India participated.

This year, the students of Mar Thoma Public School, Edachira, Ernakulam, showcased their talents in various events — fashion, music, dance, personality, photography and more. Our school submitted around 600 entries. The contestants were divided into juniors (classes I to IV), middle school (classes V to VIII) and senior (classes IX to XII)

Ten students have been selected to the top 10 entries for national Wizkids Contest
